

//The highlight of my summer was seeing a room full of students from our community come together and learn together how to be leaders that can shape a school's culture. I have watched your work for years and I am very proud of your accomplishments in our schools because it really does make a huge difference.//

- John Becchio, Principal
Santa Barbara High School